Testing Anxiety

Valerie Strickland

Brookwood Elementary's School Counselor

Thursday, March 21st

10:30-11:30 am - BWE Science Lab

Test anxiety is a growing issue today. Does your child suffer from it?

Our very own Valerie Strickland will be discussing ways you can help your child cope with test anxiety. Our counselor has the privilege of helping students every day with a wide variety of issues. One of these is anxiety and stress at school.

Please RSVP by 3/19 to programs@brookwoodpta.com

Light refreshments will be served.
